“A great turning point
On earth is at hand
Open your eyes.
See what is happening.
See the world’s actual state.

Only those who can see
The dawn of the New Era
Have clear Vision -
True eyes to perceive the truth.

God’s great Devine Light,
Long awaited for by humanity,
Has finally appeared –
The power to save the world.”

Meishu-Sama’s poem

Raising consciousness through flowers

Our Primary goal is to help establish Paradise on Earth. What, then, is Paradise on Earth! It is a World where thruth, virtue and beauty are manifested fully in our daily lives.

Our teachings on health and Nature farming provide important guidelines by which to realize our objective. And our practice of Johrei gives new life to all phases of one’s being - spiritual, mental and physical. But in Addition to these, we believe it is vitally important to raise everyone’s consciousness through beauty.

Basically speaking, our ears and eyes appreciate beauty through the senses of hearing and seeing. For the ears, never before have we seen a time when music flourished so much in Japan; this is due primarily to the development of the radio and the phonograph. But our eyes for the most part are limited to motion pictures and theatrical performances; this creates quite a discouraging situation. We should be able to have contact with beauty more easily, without any limitations of time. Of course, for the purpose of pleasing the eyes, plays and movies are very good, but considering the time, expense and distance involved, we cannot accept them wholeheartedly as the best possible means for studying beauty.

I would like to encourage people to cultivate flowers and place them everywhere. This would be the best means of promoting the love and beauty. Begin by decorating the rooms in our individual homes and in other buildings, and this should not be limited to the middle and upper classes.

Our aim is to encourage everyone to place arrangements in every place possible, so, wherever people go they will see flowers and enjoy them.

Just a Single flower in a vase would create a refreshing atmosphere wherever it is placed. It would be ideal if we could see flowers in every jail, and in each prison cell. This would have an immeasurably good effect on the inmates' mental well-being. If there are flowers wherever there are people, the negativity of today's world will be considerably alleviated.

Presently, the high price of flowers is affecting how much we can do. Therefore, we must look for a way to make them obtainable at much lower costs. To achieve this, we should encourage increasing their cultivation, provided it does not affect the production of food.

Japan is well-known as a country with a great variety of flowers. Also, it is said that our methods of growing them have reached the highest of world standards. According to a survey we have made, many Americans admire Japanese flowers and are anxious to secure rare and exceptional ones that cannot be found in United States. I believe their export would be a great aid to Japan in its efforts to improve its economic condition.

March Monthly Service Rev. Keizo Miura Speech

( Guidance by Rev. Miura - March 2016 )

Good morning everyone! It is good to be back here. I visited here 3 years ago. Some of you are familiar, but some of you are new to me, so thank you for giving me this wonderful opportunity to meet you. Today I had prepared some hundreds of slides showing the worldwide expansion activities of Johrei, however, I changed my mind this morning. I will talk about Meishu-Sama's Teachings and faith first, then when I have time, I will show some slides, or if I don't have enough time, maybe after lunch we can come back and I can show some slides from other countries' activities.

First of all, let me introduce myself a little bit: my name is Keizo Miura, I am Japanese, born in Nagoya city, (famous for Toyota cars). I'm currently working at the International Department as Director, so I visit many countries now, and that's why I have many slides to show. My family is currently living in Hawaii, I have 3 boys and the 2 elder sons are living in mainland USA and my youngest son is living in Honolulu with my wife, and I am living in Atami – Japan alone, so we all live separately all over the world.

Let me report my own experience, how I became involved with Johrei. My parents and my grandparents were members even before I was born, so I am completely second generation Johrei member. I was raised in a Johrei family; even if I had a headache, cold or whatever, everything was Johrei, Johrei, and Johrei. Until today I am really blessed that I'm very healthy so far, I don't know about tomorrow, however, so far, I'm so grateful to be healthy. As I grew up I was drifted away from the Johrei Association because I couldn't believe in Johrei or things like raising hands and these kind of funny things, so I was little by little drifting away from the Johrei. But there was a big turning point when I was 14 years old. All of sudden I started to have a pain at the back of my left eye, and I didn't know what to do. My mother said; "let's go to the Johrei Centre and receive Johrei", but I said no thank you, I don't believe this. For a couple of days I was absent from my school and the pain still continued at the back of my eye. My mother said "let's go to the Johrei Centre", and she said it again and again, but I declined. I didn't want to go and my mum said again "let's go to the Johrei Centre to receive Johrei! "

That time I said I would go and would only believe if it works on me right away. And my mother said ok, let's go. We run to the Johrei Centre and I received Johrei from the minister in charge. After I went back home, my eye pain was gone. At the time I was not happy, I was truly shocked, truly shocked. If this invisible power works, if this Johrei power exists, it was better to me to be serious for my life. I was a rough student at that time, never studied, never participated in anything, I was a very angry boy but after this experience I changed my attitude: every Sunday, every single Sunday I went to the Johrei Centre by myself. I started going every single Sunday to participate in Johrei activities, channelling and receiving Johrei. When I was a high school student I had a miraculous experience through this Johrei activity but that experience I will tell you next time when I come because this is a long story.

So that is the way I started to believe in Meishu-Sama's teachings. I read Meishu-Sama teachings for a couple of hours every day, and I really started to think like: "ah what Meishu-Sama said is really the truth!". That's why I believe in Meishu-Sama. So when I was 18 years old I decided to be a minister in the future. That is how I felt when I went to Kyusei College (Johrei Trainee Program) after I graduated from regular college (by the way my master was mechanical engineering). So that's how I connected to the Johrei Association.

Today I have a present for the Sydney Johrei Centre. This calligraphy I brought for you, these characters in Japanese means eternal life. I would like to present this calligraphy to Rev. Horacio and so for all of you.

Now Kyoshu-Sama said that each individual, each one of us has eternal life; whenever I see this calligraphy it remind me that we have eternal life, because we have an individualized part of God in us, which is the Divine Particle. Each one of us, no matter what nationality or race, has a divine particle, I believe that. Meishu-Sama said that everybody has eternal life. God is eternal, so we have a divine particle which is eternal as well. So we have an eternal life. Of course physically we may have to go to the spiritual world but, spiritually we are eternal. Whenever you see this calligraphy, please remember: our life is eternal. That's why we have to respect each one of us, who has a divine particle. A lot of wars are going on, killing is going on but I believe that, if we believe that everyone has an eternal divine particle, I think someday the wars will end, that's my hope. We have to pray for that. As a Johrei follower we have to pray for world peace by believing this, that each one of us has eternal life, each one of us has a divine particle. That's what I really want to ask you to learn through this "eternal life" calligraphy.

Today I will talk about Kyoshu-Sama's guidance too, but before that let me share a picture of Kyoshu-Sama and his son with you. These are Kyoshu-Sama's middle son, Reverend Kobayashi the Worldwide President of Johrei and the supporting reverends. The International Department had a great opportunity this time to report about worldwide activities directly to Kyoshu-Sama. On this occasion I asked one question to Kyoshu-Sama: "I've always been telling overseas members that now Kyoshu-Sama is answering very difficult questions that nobody answered yet: 'As humankind, where did we come from, and where we are mean to go?'. Nobody can answer, even scientists, religious people, but Kyoshu-Sama has now answered, that we were created in Heaven and we were sent from Heaven and we should return to where we belong; so we have to return to Heaven". That is what Kyoshu-Sama has been telling us, teaching us in his guidance repeatedly. But sometimes we don't understand, so I asked him personally: "if we want to understand his guidance, we have to raise our spiritual level first, we have to grow more, is that right? that's the kind of idea okay?" I asked Kyoshu-Sama that. What he said is: "but Miura San, God gave you a perfect divine particle, we have a perfect divine particle but you still feel like you have to elevate; you believe there is a gap, you think about yourself 'ohh I have to elevate more and more', but God already gave you a perfect divine particle, which is perfectly good and shiny and beautiful!" We have a divine particle but we feel like we are not enough yet, not elevated yet, so much clouded still. But what Kyoshu-Sama wanted to tell me was that, first of all, why don't we just recognize we have a perfect divine particle, and once we recognize it, let's thank God, like saying: "oh you gave me perfect divine particle and eternal life, you shared it with all of us". Let us recognize it and then thank God. Of course we should make an effort to elevate more and more, but we don't realize we have a perfect divine particle.

That is what Kyoshu-Sama taught me. He believes this is the way that we should communicate with God. So I realize we should recognize this every day. For example if today you come to the Centre and then there is something you recognize on hearing the experience of faith, hearing the teaching and you can say: "oh I realize it, I never thought! I have listened to those teachings so many times but I didn't realize that point", then if you give thanks to God, "I realize now, thank you very much!", then through Meishu-Sama we can communicate with God. That's the way Kyoshu-Sama is repeatedly telling us to communicate with God by gratitude, by realizing something, being aware of something new to us.

And then today, we are granting an Assistant Minister certificate to Rubens, and, I myself received a Kyoshi (Senior Reverend) certificate in February last month, and also representing all the overseas churches I receive a lot of certificates like this: Hundreds of certificates for assistant ministers, ministers, Senior Ministers. So when I have received all the certificates from Reverend Kobayashi, I felt that being a Minister, a Senior Minister, demands a great sense of responsibility that through my words, my behaviour and my thoughts, the people around me must feel the presence of Meishu-Sama; everyone must feel His dignity and love through me. I realized this is the kind of Minister I want to be, that kind of person I want to be, a person that through his words, behaviour, and thoughts can bring Meishu-Sama to the people; I would really like to be that kind of Minister. So in that moment, receiving all those certificates, representing all churches around the World, I felt that way! So again, first of all, I have to recognize I have a perfect divine particle, and I still want to elevate myself, that is my commitment.

So, I always share with the members my thoughts that gratitude is the most important thing in our lives, I believe that. So I will explain with a slide. In daily life we always have situations (I call it situation, okay), things happening around us, all right? Sometimes we react saying a "oh no!" about that situation; then, basically when we say "oh no", it is going to be a problem, a complaint; instead, if we say "OH YES!" to that situation, then it is going to be a purification, which will let us improve spiritually. I heard members in Australia have been practicing this always when they face something odd, saying "OH YES!" first, meaning "thank you, thank you for giving this purification to me". That is the meaning of the "OH YES!"; a lot of members in Melbourne remember me as the Rev. OH YES, from three years ago. When you face a situation, the situation remains neutral, you are in charge, situation is just an instant, but you are in charge, you can say "OH YES" or "oh no", you can complain or have gratitude, complain or say "OH YES, I take it as a purification", so it will be a grateful happening to which you can have gratitude. It means you understand that God's love is to cleanse you, to nurture you, to raise your spiritual level. If you can see God's love behind any situation, then you can have gratitude. So let's not say "oh no" and create problems and ingratitude! If we always say "OH YES!", we will have gratitude then we are going to be really happy. Meishu-Sama's Teaching says: "Gratitude gives birth to gratitude and ingratitude creates more ingratitude, if you rejoice, joyous things will come to you". Every morning when I get up, when I open my eyes, before I get up, I say a prayer Kyoshu-Sama guided us to: "I want to be born anew as a true child of God...", and after that, for one whole minute, I say thank you, thank you, thank you, ... For one minute I can say 115 times "thank you!". I read in one book that if you say thank you before you get up, 100 times, your brain, which was still sleeping, will try to find something grateful, which means that your brain will try to find out at least 100 things to be grateful for. I do it continuously. I mentioned this to one of the Brazilian trainees in Japan, who had a little skin problem around the neck. I didn't say try this, but I said that I was practicing this, saying thank you 100 times, so whenever I have problems I say thank you; it seems crazy if you always say thank you, thank you, thank you, in front of the people, but when you say words of appreciation, joyous things will come to you, as Meishu-Sama said. So every morning I say thank you for one whole minute; I go to the altar and then the first thing I do is a morning gratitude donation, and so many wonderful things have been happening to me. I am so happy, I am the happiest man in the world. I have lots of problems, lots of situations, however, I say thank you, thank you for each situation, because it raises myself.

Let me share something I realized during my last visit to Thailand, last year. I was waiting in the airport lounge, and there was a gentleman nearby. He stood up to go to a refreshment table, but I saw that he had dropped something, I thought it could be an important thing for him, but he had just gone to the refreshment table, and I missed the chance to tell him. So I found an employee who was there nearby the place he had dropped that thing and I told her, "that gentleman dropped something". She picked it up and gave to the gentleman, and he said "oh thank you very much". At that time, I thought it was not fair, because the one who found the thing he dropped and tried to inform him was me, not her, so I thought, "ohh this is not fair". You know me, I am a humble man, I don't get angry, that was okay, I am a Minister, why do I have to be recognized? However, I thought that if the gentleman said thank you to the employee and she said, "oh not me, that gentleman is the one who told me that you had dropped something, say thank you to him", at least the gentleman could thank me, but he just went back to his seat without knowing my existence at all. So I realized, am I doing the same thing to God and Meishu-Sama? She didn't inform the gentleman the real target of his appreciation, who did it, who found it; am I doing the same to God? As a Minister we receive gratitude from you, from the members; Do I say "oh, it is not me, is Meishu-Sama, Not me"? Sometimes we don't, sometimes we receive thank you and feel like that was "my guidance". But no, everything comes from God, everything comes from Meishu-Sama, we just have been used! So I thought that we should always say thanks to the real source of our appreciation, that means God's love, we should appreciate God. Behind every situation there is God. We may feel that there are problems or negative things; however, God is behind it, behind everything. God sometimes gives us favourable things or unfavourable things, but either way, God is doing, God is giving the situation to us, so we should thank Him for everything. We should do our best, of course.

It is here I would like to share, one good tip for your health. There is this Doctor Shinohara, he is a rheumatic arthritis specialist, he has performed exams on thousands of patients, and he said there is only 3 ways to recover from very hard diseases, almost incurable diseases; one: give up, two: forget, three: serve others. What that means is, patients who fully give up their own illness, patients who put their illness in the back of their mind, patients who strive for the lives of others, are the ones who gather those three conditions to recover from incurable unhealthy situations. I believe it also applies for financial situations, or conflicts situations, or others situations as well.

This doctor says that if a sick person uses his energy focusing only on his illness, or worries, or concerns, in other words pays attention only to illness, poverty or financial problems, he is using all his energy for a negative thing; instead, if he uses energy to serve for others, this can create a healthy body, healthy mind, and even bring a cure. For instance, one lady came to him, and he diagnosed her with rheumatic arthritis and gave her some pills. She came back to see him just 4 or 5 months later, and she was fine! Then the doctor asked: "what happened? you really look fine, no pain, what happened?" and she said: "Oh after I came here, my husband collapsed from a stroke and then I gave up my illness, because I needed to take care of my husband." This is a perfect example. She forgot her problems and served others; then she got a blessing. So, we have certain energy, let's use our energy towards something good, towards something positive. Then God will take care of our problems, I believe. So I surrender everything into God's hands.

Okay, I think time is up, I will finish my talk. What I really want to say is that here in Australia we can see the worldwide expansion work. I believe it doesn't matter if there is a bigger group or a smaller group, it doesn't make a difference at all because we are all Meishu-Sama's true family! Even in the many places with no Johrei Centre, no place to gather, or no Ministers, or no Full Time Ministers, when there are members who practice Johrei and try to follow Meishu-Sama's teachings, there is truly Meishu-Sama's family. So from here Sydney Johrei Centre, let us pray for the worldwide expansion, let us pray for the members in Nepal, let us pray for members in Indonesia (they don't have a centre or a Minister), let us pray for members in Vietnam (they don't have many activities); but we are blessed here, we have a Johrei Centre, we have full time Ministers, so let us appreciate that too, and appreciate God and Meishu-Sama because they are behind everything. Thank you for everything.

The teachings of Meishu-Sama and Sorei-Saishi

(Religious suffrage of settlement and sacrament of our ancestors at the Sacred Ground)

Last April we held the ANZAC Memorial Service at Sydney and Melbourne Johrei Centres. On that occasion, Rev. Horacio (President of Johrei Association) said: "We pray together to honour the memory of the courageous heroes of ANZAC, paying tribute to all of the proud men and women who have served in the defence forces of the Australia New Zealand Army Corps. I believe that praying for them, is one of the ways we can actively work to purify the spiritual world of Australia and NZ, promoting a happier future for our descendants!"

In this way, every year on ANZAC Day the Johrei Association celebrates the ANZAC Memorial Service not just for the brave ANZAC heroes, but for the ancestors of all of us who live in Australia.

Meishu-Sama taught us in the teaching "Wrongdoing and the Cause of Illness" that "We are not creatures who have suddenly sprung to life unrelated to other beings. Each of us is the total sum and synthesis of thousands of ancestors, the living and breathing culmination of all our forebears".

This means that our consciousness and bodies are made from our own past experiences and our ancestors' ones. That is why we say we inherit behaviours and manners from parents and relatives. It is like a tree, our great-grandparents being the roots, grandparents the trunk, parents the branches and we the leaves, which can bear fruits and seeds representing our descendants.

In other words, as Meishu-Sama continues: "We are each an intermediate being – an individual person at this moment – in the eternal flow of life. In the large view, we are links in the chain connecting our ancestors and our descendants. In the smaller view, each of us is the link joining our parents to our children".

As we are the sum of our ancestors, it is clear that their happiness will be a motive to us to be happy too. So, the more ancestors of ours can grow spiritually to a paradise-like level in the Spiritual Realm, the more we will become happier on Earth, and vice-versa.

As Rev. Horacio explains, “As representatives of our ancestors, we should be always mindful that the more we work for Meishu-Sama here, the more we are directly influencing the happiness of our Ancestors in the spiritual world. Let us show our love to our Ancestors, becoming their True Representative on Earth, working towards building a better world. The more we accumulate good deeds in our daily lives, for the benefit of society and the world, the more we will directly accelerate the purification of our spirit and our ancestors, and consequently elevate the spiritual level of our whole family.”

Therein lies the importance for us to dedicate together with our ancestors in order to bring light, happiness and salvation to the whole family lineage.

A way for us, Johrei members, to bring light to ancestors is through the Sorei-Saishi (Religious Suffrage of Settlement and Sacrament of our Ancestors). Through Sorei-Saishi we can settle the spirits of our ancestors at the Ancestors Altar at the Sacred Ground in Atami, Japan, where they can receive prayers and offerings of gratitude on a daily basis, allowing them to raise their spiritual levels. We can also say prayers and offer gratitude at the Johrei Centre as well. (for more information about Sorei-Saishi please contact us via email).

Another important way to bring light to our ancestors is through our dedication at the Johrei Centre, doing cleaning dedication, channelling Johrei to people in need and guiding new members to the Johrei Association. When we make others happy, their gratitude comes to us in form of light, which purifies not just our spirit, but our ancestors' ones too.

So, let's make an effort to realize what Rev. Horacio asked at the ANZAC Memorial Service: “Let us take this Annual ANZAC service as a great ‘Annual opportunity’ to re-confirm inside of us that: ‘We are persons on Earth, that have a strong spiritual connection with our Ancestors and with Meishu-Sama.’ We can say that our Ancestors - through our spiritual cords – are connected with Meishu-Sama, and that they can be purified, saved and receive New Life from The Divine & Meishu-Sama! - Meishu-Sama can guide all of us to the Supreme God and to the paradise that exists inside of each one of us!”

Paradise on Earth Service

In the early morning hours of June 15, 1931, Meishu-Sama and a group of followers went to the top of Mount Nokogiri, in the province of Chiba, Japan. Then, at daybreak, facing the sun, he chanted the Amatsu-Norito prayer, whose spiritually uplifting words have the power to purify both Heaven and Earth.

Just then, Meishu-Sama received the revelation that a huge change was about to begin: the Transition from the Age of Night to the Age of Light. Thus, Meishu-Sama teaches us that every year, as of that date, the Spiritual World becomes ever brighter and the materialization of Paradise on Earth is nearer.

Therefore, the Paradise on Earth Service, held on June 15, is one of the most important services of the World Messianic Church. It is a day when Johrei members renew the awareness of their mission to contribute to Paradise on Earth and to the salvation of as many people as possible.

On last February 4th, our Spiritual Leader taught us how to partake on this Construction:

““The construction of paradise on earth” means only one thing. It is for us to follow in the footsteps of Messiah Meishu-sama, be born anew as a child of God and attain the status of a

Messiah. We can all be a Messiah while living on earth, because we are destined to be so. [..]

This is what a construction of paradise on earth means. God is constructing us to become His children. Where does He do it? He does it within us. He is training our hearts and minds always so that our consciousness does not vanish when we die. God wants our consciousness to last forever and attain eternal life. That is why I will say this repeatedly: surrender your inner selves, your heart and mind, to God in the name of Messiah

Meishu-sama; surrender your life, consciousness and soul to Him. God will then be able to nurture and train you and lead you to obtain eternal life. Living your life in this way is how you can be a part of the construction of paradise on earth.”

So, in this coming Paradise on Earth Service let's commit ourselves to follow Meishu-Sama's footsteps and realize Paradise on Earth!

Natural Agricultural Expansion in Brazil

In April we moved one step forward to the realisation of Divine Work. Rev. Luiz Dematte (Brazil) was elected by the members and chosen by the Brazilian Ministry of Agriculture as the new President of the Thematic Chamber of Organic Agriculture (CTAO) in Brazil. This chamber discusses points of improvement of legislation on Organic Agriculture. From now on, the Johrei Association, the Korin and the Mokiti Okada Foundation are able to contribute directly in developing Meishu-Sama's Nature Farming in all Brazilian territories. Less poison and more vital energy for all! Congratulations Rev. Dematte! The Korin family is really proud!
